MRS. HERMANCE

We, the class of 1961, would like to dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Hermance for all the extra service that she has given our class, especially to our treasurers and yearbook staff. This is our way of showing our appreciation.

RUSSELL ROBERTSON

We also wish to dedicate our yearbook to Russell Robertson, our athletic director. We are grateful for all he has done for us, not only as a teacher, but also as a friend and counselor to the members of our class.

ADMINISTRATION

*The quality of mercy is not strained;
It droppeth, as the gentle rain from heaven
Upon the place beneath; it is twice bless'd —
It blesseth him that gives, and him that takes.*

SHAKESPEARE

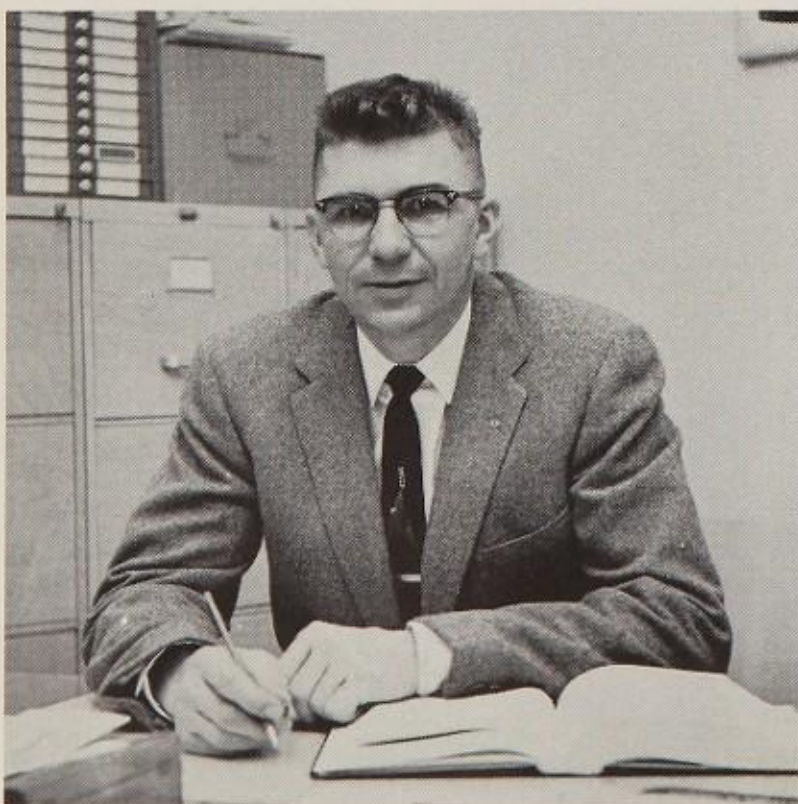

Principal's Message

It is indeed a pleasure to convey on behalf of the Board of Education and faculty of Ockawamick Central School best wishes for a most successful and happy future.

We are proud of your class, and will expect even greater things from you in later years. You are entering into an era of world turmoil, but one filled with wonderful opportunities. All you have to do is to make the most of them.

I personally want to add my sincere best wishes to each and every one of you.

Miss Relyea

The class of 1961 would like to dedicate this yearbook to MISS RELYEA because she has given the best years of her life to the students at Ockawamick and Philmont High School. A few of us knew her as a teacher and others as the elementary supervisor. We all recognize the sacrifices that she has made and this is our way of thanking her.

Last Will and Testament of the Class of 1961

- I, Barbara Aldrich, leave my fashionably short skirts to Jackie Perry.
- I, Larry Andrews, leave my foul shots and Best Wishes to Larry Shutts and The 1962 Basketball Team.
- I, Gary Batts, leave an empty gas tank to Jim Decker and George Dell.
- I, Tom Beck, leave without pass.
- I, Mary Jeanne Barden, leave my quiet way to Mary Ann Love and Judy Van Duesen.
- I, Frances Chambers, leave my pierced ears to Sandy Albright for two more holes in her head.
- I, Jaye Dell, turn in my platinum wig to Linda Powers for further experimentation.
- I, Jim Grasso, leave my lunches to Linda Dutcher and Lillian Sarokey.
- I, Sue Hamm, leave my work after school on the "Teepee Talk" to Carol Ann Montague.
- I, Pete Hermance, leave my address and pessimistic outlook to Marilyn Stickles.
- I, Winfield Hotaling, leave my "bookkeeping" (in that little black book) to Bill Richards for a happy senior year.
- I, Judy Johnson, leave my record of behavior to Orine Friss.
- I, Helen Malendrino, leave my latest book, HOW TO FIND YOUR WAY AROUND OCKAWAMICK, to Ilona Trowbridge and all the other new juniors.
- I, Bonnie Mellon, leave my motherly instinct to Barb Hamm for next year's senior class.
- I, George Mickle, leave my Saturday nights to Ann Buffington.
- I, Jane Minkler, gladly leave my many headaches to the 1962 editors of the "Totem Pole."
- I, Larry North, leave my track shoes to John Brandon to keep O. C. S. in the lead at the track meets and for a run in the right direction next year.
- I, Silvio Obertello, leave my old football uniform to Brad Race for altering.
- I, Peter Post, leave a September 14 party to Richard Belterman.
- I, Harold Powers, leave my legs to David Lorton--figuratively speaking, of course.
- I, Ruby Proper, leave memories of aches, pains, pills, and sprained ankles for a healthy 1962.
- I, Phyllis Pultz, leave a few left over Winter Carnival buttons to Julianna Wisniowski.
- I, Ken Reuckert, leave my chickens to "Topsy" Malandrino, for care during free moments of her senior year.

I, Pat Ronsani, leave my bubbling personality to Sharon June.

I, Dale Rowe, leave my old shot gun shells to Peter Reiss for hunting those special "dear" in 1962.

I, Salome Sartori, leave my eyelash curler to Sally Suprenant and Roberta Perry to be used whenever the occasion warrants.

I, Tony Sartori, leave my set of golf clubs to Bruce and Bob Hamm to dig up Ockawamick's lawn and to keep the golf team out in front next spring.

I, Gretel Schober, leave my blue comb to Mary Jane Merrifield to keep those long strands shining throughout 1962.

I, Sara Schumann, leave my clownish stunts and detention slips to Meris Gasperini, Joan Snow, and Mary Ann Baldwin.

I, Annette Shutts, leave many lab explosions to Lynore White for an unforgettable year in Chemistry.

I, Lynn Shutts, leave much time spent in the library to Cliff Miller in hopes that he'll put it to better use in 1962.

I, Beatrice Stitcher, leave my speed of 80 words a minute in Shorthand to JoAnn Pavola.

I, Betty Streett, leave my flirtatious manner to Sharon Proper for further investigation and experimentation.

I, Kenny Townsend, leave my knapsack and camping trips to Norm Rivenburg for use during his spare time. Don't forget the cans of beans, boys!

I, Eric Van Deusen, leave my copies from H. G. Wells to John Weaver in hopes that he'll exchange them for MAD.

I, Sam Wright, leave a spot on alley 21 and hopes of a 300 game to Jim Miller.

We, the class of 1961, leave to the students and faculty of Ockawamick memories of our fond deeds.

Class Prophecy

In the year 1981, on the densely populated planet "Ockamick," the illustrious tycoon KENNETH E. TOWNSEND was holding the greatest social event of the geophysical year. MELLEN & PULTZ, Decorators, Inc., had succeeded in transforming the ballroom into a Hornets hive of activity. TOM BECK, caterer for the event, was seen running around trying to solve last minute problems. The social roster included many prominent people, among them several professors from the MINKLER University. LARRY ANDREWS, professor of mathematics, was the first to embark from his new convertible saucer -- especially designed by ERIC VAN DEUSEN, director of the Banderwalkie Research Lab. SARA SCHUMANN, JAY DELL, and HELEN MALANDRINO came in at the same time, each with a husband in tow. KEN RUECKERT, business manager for the BARDEN Instrumental Corp., appeared, wearing a TONY SARTORI original -- space suit, that is. HAROLD POWERS, center forward for the HOTALING Hotshots came in with JIM GRASSO, recently discharged from the Ockamick outer space patrol. BARBARA ALDRICH was busy telling teachers PAT RONSANI and BETTY STREETT about her experiences with GEORGE MICKLE's children who were in her second grade class. GRETTEL SCHOBBER, secretary for the GARY BATTS Photography Studios came in with PETER POST, president of planet Ockamick. SUE HAMM, editor of MODEL'S LIFE, came in with her chief assistant, FRAN CHAMBERS, who was already getting advice from SILVIO OBERTELLO, a commercial artist. Suddenly the entrance was blocked with the shadow of a forest ranger, DALE ROWE, quite tanned from his long stay at Catamount, a strange place on Earth planet. His trip was possible due to the new Earth rocket which had been invented by scientist ANNETTE SHUTTS. It was indeed fortunate that LYNN SHUTTS was present, because poor DALE needed an interpreter since he had become accustomed to Earth language. No social event would be complete without the presence of LARRY NORTH. He was delayed due to the fact that his Earthmobile was not functioning properly and Earth mechanic SAM WRIGHT had some difficulty getting the necessary parts. As RUBY PROPER came in, SAL SARTORI started a dramatic monologue. She had just begun when she fell in a dead faint. Quickly, JUDY JOHNSON called the doctor for whom she worked, while BEA STICHTER ran for some water. PETE HERMANCE carried her to the couch and in a matter of seconds STEVE YAKIMO arrived with a prescription from his pharmacy. For a while things were hectic, but soon everyone settled down for a very nice party for which the TOWNSENDS were famous.

History

A group of happy ninth graders thronged into the corridors of Ockawamick Central School in September, 1957, conscious of the fact that they were now high school students.

We started the ball rolling with the election of class officers. Eric Van Deusen was our first president, Annette Shutts was vice-president, Gretel Schober was secretary, and Gail Sigler--treasurer. We held our first dance in the fall of the year and appropriately called it "Autumn Festival."

We marked our Sophomore year with an illustrious dance called "Cupid's Delight" held in February around Valentine's Day. Everyone will recall this memorable dance and its gay, ingenious decorations. Our president that year was Pete "Hoppy" Post, vice-president--Annette Shutts, secretary--Mary Jean Barden and treasurer--Eric Van Deusen.

Those among us who were fortunate enough to be elected to the National Honor Society were: Annette Shutts, Lynn Shutts, Jane Minkler, Eric Van Deusen, Peter Post, and Larry Andrews.

The crown bearer and court jester for the Junior Prom traditionally chosen from the sophomore class were Gretel Schober and Steve Yakimo.

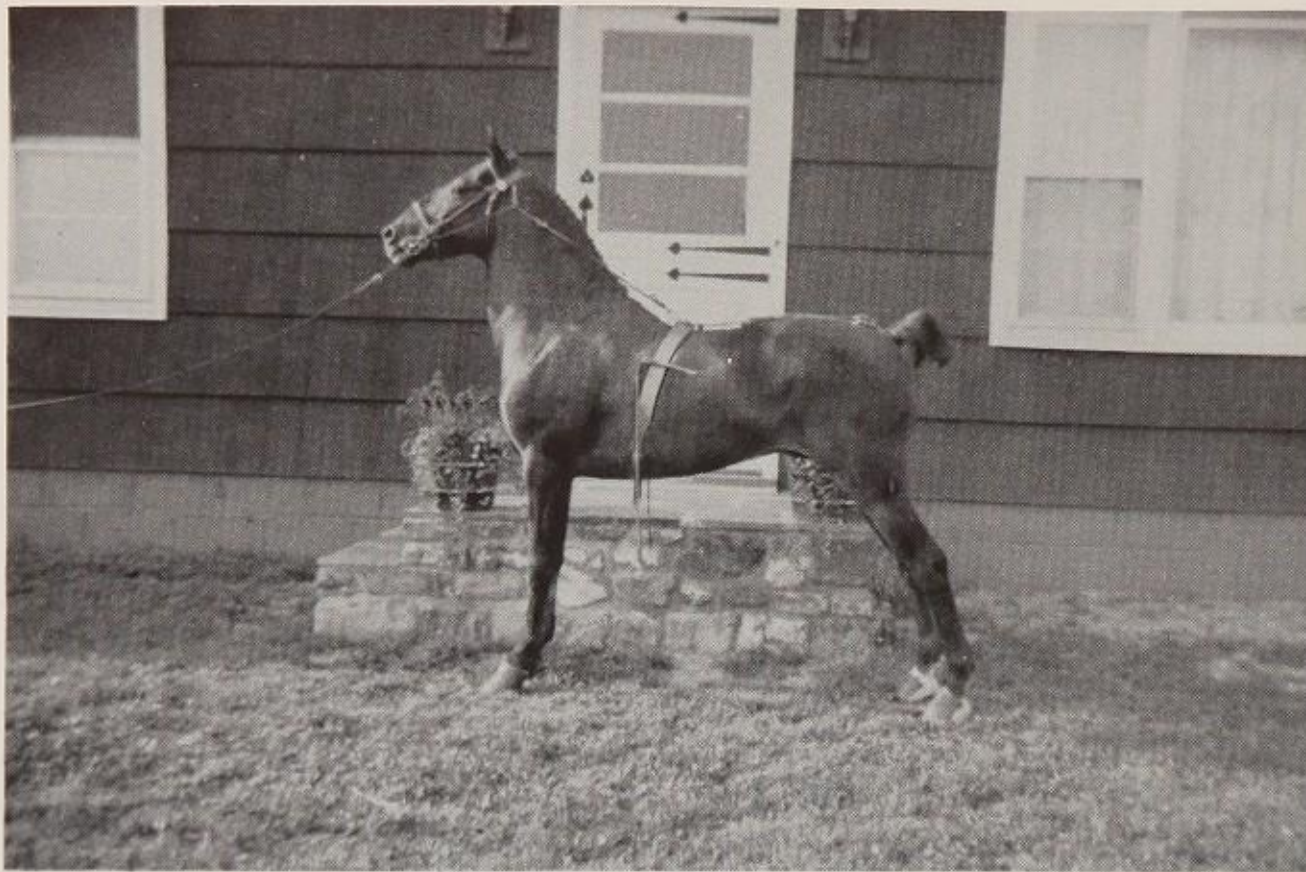

In 1959 we began our prolific Junior year. We organized our class with extremely competent officers. Jane Minkler became president, Annette Shutts --vice-president, Lynn Shutts--secretary and Eric Van Deusen--treasurer.

As everyone recalls our talented class won first prize in the Christmas Contest with our beatnik version of "The Night Before Christmas." The first dance we sponsored was an informal called "Frosty Frolicks."

Then, on the sixth of May, Nineteen Hundred and Sixty, our class held the Junior Prom called "An Enchanted Evening." And enchanted it was indeed! After much planning the gym was transformed into a moonlit garden and the girls looked like so many multicolored butterflies flitting about. After the procession of royal personages was announced by the mistress of ceremonies, Gretel Schober, the culmination of the evening which was the crowning of the king and queen began. The king and queen were Harold Powers and Mary Jean Barden. Thus our Junior year came to an end.

In September 1960 we elected the class officers which were to guide us through our never-to-be-forgotten Senior year. Harold Powers became president, Eric Van Deusen--vice-president, Gretel Schober--secretary, Annette Shutts--treasurer. The first event which I feel should be mentioned is our Dress-Down Day. Although, I am sorry to write, it did not meet the approval of all the faculty members, it certainly should be accounted among our successes as it helped bring the Senior class closer together.

The idea of a spaghetti supper at the end of the football season had its origin with the class of '61. By the time the evening was over it was clear to everyone that our spaghetti supper had been a success both financially and socially.

Of course, as everyone will recall, our gifted class again won the trophy in the interclass competition for the best Christmas play.

We also made history for O.C.S. when we initiated two new ideas for our dance. One idea was the new system of determining the entrance fee, that is having couples pay a penny a pound for the girl's weight. Also introduced at this time was a new system of lighting for our dance and all future ones.

The climax of our four successful years came when we held our gala senior ball.

Our thoughts will often turn to Ockawamick as we travel through life's uneven roads. We will always remember the protected, happy years we spent here and be so grateful to those who have guided us.
